- 12(1) If the Speaker is absent or unable to act, the Deputy Speaker shall take the chair until the end of that sitting day or until the Speaker returns, whichever occurs first.
- (2) If the Speaker and the Deputy Speaker are absent or unable to act, the Deputy Chair of Committees shall take the chair until the end of that sitting day or until the Speaker or the Deputy Speaker returns, whichever occurs first.
- (3) If, when the Assembly convenes or reconvenes, the Speaker, the Deputy Speaker and the Deputy Chair of Committees are all absent or unable to act, the Clerk shall so advise the Assembly and the Assembly may elect one of its Members to take the chair and preside over the proceedings of the Assembly until the end of that sitting day or until the Speaker, Deputy Speaker or Deputy Chair of Committees returns, whichever occurs first.
- (4) If the Speaker finds it necessary to leave the chair during a sitting of the Assembly, the Speaker may call on the Deputy Speaker or the Deputy Chair of Committees or, in their absence, on any Member of the Assembly, to take the chair and preside over the proceedings of the Assembly for the remainder of that sitting day or until the Speaker returns, whichever occurs first.
- (5) A reference to the Speaker in these Standing Orders includes any Member acting as Speaker pursuant to Standing Orders.

Order and decorum

- 13(1) The Speaker shall preserve order and decorum and decide questions of order.
- (2) The Speaker shall explain the reasons for any decision on the request of a Member.
- (3) When the Speaker is putting a question, no person shall walk out of or across the Assembly or make any noise or disturbance.

- (a) the other Member, or
 - (b) the Speaker.

Withdrawal and custody of strangers

- 14(1) For the purposes of this Standing Order, a stranger does not include an infant being cared for by a Member.
- (1.1) If any Member takes notice that strangers are present in the Assembly, the Speaker or the Chair, as the case may be, shall immediately put the question that strangers be ordered to withdraw, without permitting any debate or amendments.

(3) If the Speaker is of the opinion that the matter may not be fairly dealt with at that time, the Speaker may defer debate on the matter to a time when he or she determines it may be fairly dealt with.

(4) If the Member whose conduct is called into question is not present, the matter shall be deferred to the next day that the Member is present unless the Speaker rules that, in the circumstances, the matter may be dealt with in the Member's absence.

(5) A Member may always raise a question of privilege in the Assembly immediately after the words are uttered or the events occur that give rise to the question, in which case the written notice required under suborder (2) is not required.

(6) The Speaker may allow such debate as he or she thinks appropriate in order to determine whether a prima facie case of breach of privilege has taken place and whether the matter is being raised at the earliest opportunity, and if the Speaker so rules, any Member may give notice no later than the conclusion of the next sitting day of a motion to deal with the matter further.

(7) If the Speaker rules that there is no prima facie case of privilege or that the matter has not been raised at the earliest opportunity, there are no further proceedings on the matter.

(8) If a motion is made pursuant to suborder (6) touching on the conduct of any Member's election or a Member's right to hold a seat, that Member may make a statement and then must withdraw during the time the matter is in debate.

(9) Unless otherwise directed by the Assembly, it is not a breach of privilege for a member of a committee to discuss, in confidence, with other Members of the Assembly, matters that are under consideration by the committee.
